

HONORARY FREEDOM POLICY – NEWBIGGIN BY THE SEA TOWN COUNCIL

Newbiggin by the Sea Town Council has the Power to admit to be honorary freemen/freewomen of council's area persons of distinction and persons who have, in the opinion of the authority, rendered eminent services to that place or area Pursuant to Local Government Act 1972, s.249 (5), s.249 (9)

Policy Statement

From time to time, members of the community demonstrate outstanding commitment and contribution to the wellbeing of the Town and it is recognised that their efforts should be acknowledged. The Council will do this, in special circumstances that meet the criteria of this policy, by awarding to an individual the title of 'Honorary Freeman (or Honorary Freewoman) of the Town of Newbiggin by the Sea. This honour will be awarded only on rare and exceptional occasions.

Service

The nominee may have given extensive and eminent service to the Town of Newbiggin and its local community (e.g. service to other organisations and voluntary and community groups) in a largely voluntary capacity. The nominee must have made an outstanding contribution to the Town such that the nominee's contribution can be seen to stand above the contributions made by most other people.

Nomination Criteria

The following will be taken into account when consideration is given to granting the honour of Honorary Freeman (or Honorary Freewoman) of the Town:-

1. Preference will be given to a person who performs in a voluntary capacity, but this should not preclude the honour being awarded to a person whose dedication and contribution is significantly above that expected from their occupation.
2. All nominees should have carried out their largely voluntary roles for a period of at least 15 years.
3. Nominees need not necessarily be residents of Newbiggin.
4. The award will not be restricted to Town Councillors or Town Council staff.
5. Any nominated Town Councillor should have retired from the post.
6. The contribution to the wellbeing of the community must involve one or more of the following factors:-
 - (a) A significant allocation of the person's time in serving members of the community for the improvement of their wellbeing.
 - (b) The promotion, achievement and/or delivery of community services in which a real personal contribution has been made.
 - (c) Whilst difficult to define, the contribution must be outstanding in that it can be seen to stand above the contributions of most other persons.

HONORARY FREEDOM POLICY – NEWBIGGIN BY THE SEA TOWN COUNCIL

Nomination Procedure

1. Nominations must be made in the strictest confidence without the nominee's knowledge. Any resident or elector of the Town of Newbiggin by the Sea may make a nomination but it must be sponsored by a Town Councillor.
2. Nominations must be made in writing to the Town Clerk. The submission should be evidence-based by outlining the voluntary service provided by the individual to the community and any other examples of 'community spirit' to justify the honour. On receipt of a nomination, it will be circulated to all Councillors for confidential consideration. If agreed, the nomination will then be put before Council and a formal vote taken, again in confidence.
3. Councillors' reasons for any objection to a nomination must be given. If the Councillors are in agreement that the nominee should be made an Honorary Freeman (or Freewoman) of the Town, the nominee will be invited to accept the honour.

5. The decisions of the Council on all nominations (whether affirmative or negative) are final.
